

Heritage of the 185th Fighter Wing

gt Raegan L. Launderville

Wing Historian

Introduction

- Brief overview of unit history
- From Beginning to Present

Topics of Discussion

- Where did the 185th come from?
  - 1 The National Guard
  - 2 U.S. Army Air Force
  - 3 365th Fighter Group
  - 4 386th Fighter Squadron
  - 5 174th FS
  - 6 185th FG
  - 7 185th FW

Where did the 185th come from?

- The Minutemen were the first national guardsmen
- Massachusetts National Guard 1636 - Paul F

Picture of Paul Revere

Where did the 185th come from? (Continued)

- United States Army Air Forces (AAF) - WWII
- 365th Fighter Group - “The Hell Hawks”
- Under the 365th FG were Three Fighter Squadrons the 386th, 387th, and the 388th

365th's
Patch

Explanation of AAF Structure

- The Group was the governing body
- A Group usually had 3 or 4 subordinate Squadrons
- These Squadron's pilots flew the planes

The P-47
Thunderbolt was flown by the 386th

After the War

- After the war there was no longer a need to have such a large standing military
- So many of the squadrons were deactivated into the National Guard
- 1947-Birth of the Air Force & Air National Guard
- The 386th FS was Redesignated as 174th FS and allotted to ANG on 24 May 1946

From 174th FS to 185th FW

- Unit was the 174 FS from 02 Dec 46
-
01 Oct 62
- 174 FS redesignated to 185 TFG on 01 Oct 62, the 174th is now the flying squadron for the 185th
- 185 FG redesignated to 185 FW 30
Jul 96

Proud to Serve!

- Called to active duty for the Korean Conflict
- One of four Air Guard units that served in Vietnam

Recently

- Operation Provide Comfort I
- Operation Provide Comfort II
(enforcement of the no-fly zone over Iraq)

Today. . .

- The 185th Fighter Wing is mmanded by Colonel Virgil T. Considine
- The unit flies the F-16 Fighting Falcon
- The unit is located in S
IA

